CARLETON UNIVERSITY
OTTAWA, ONTARIO
1987-88

FROSH WEEK '87

"Hi! I guess we're roommates! Going to the pub tonight?" It was Wednesday, September 2nd, and we were scared, excited, and . . . frosh. We survived the Grand Opening at the Fenn Lounge, and were on our way to Froshdom. Floor Reps (Party Promoters) set the example --- staying up all week and dragging us out at 6 am for calisthenics. We mixed and mingled every night, fed each other at Saga, and took in some great concerts. The sports frenzies, the Boat Cruise, the bellyflop contest, Roundup and the "superfrosh attitude" got us through Frosh Week '87 alive . . . and with four hundred new friends!!!

INTRAMURALS

“Exercise? Are you kidding?” Many students said this when they first heard of sports this year. Then floors started turning out champions and everyone became involved. We offer many sports including: basketball, soccer, volleyball and softball. Thanks to each Sports Whip for getting everyone involved and having alot of fun! Now aren't you glad that you joined???

GATINEAU PICNIC

"Where are we going??" Quite a few students asked this question early this year. It was a Sunday morning and everyone woke up to the pounding of doors. Everyone boarded buses to the Gatineaus. The weather was great for throwing frisbees, footballs and even people into the water. A couple of guys even managed to do some canoeing (Mark & Rob: I'm highly impressed!). For lunch a barbeque was put on for everyone. Overall, the Gatineau Picnic was said to be a blast!!!

PANDA '87

“What do you mean --- no sleep??”

A lot of the frosh this year learned the real meaning of the word nocturnal. Panda Weekend, October 17th, was the day that the two Universities came together in a game of football. Like other years, students bought all the paraphernalia: Panda shirts, hats, shorts, overalls and even wineskins. Saturday morning, faces and overalls were painted. Everyone went to Saga to take in some food and view the rowdiness. Luckily Ottawa Police were on hand! At noon, residents met in the Commons and walked to the game with Ottawa residents cheering them on. Upon reaching Lansdowne Park, students took their seats to watch the Carleton Ravens win against the Gee Gees, with a final of 8 to 4. During the parade back to residence, cheers of “Carleton is #1” were heard and congratulated. Finally, most students caught up on sleep for the first time. For others, the victory party was just beginning. Hey . . . what IS a GeeGee???

SCARY STUFF!

PUBS

"Oh yea, you really have to go --- it's cheap and they are really excellent!" Floor Reps all over our campus were telling this to everyone who asked about pubs. The crazy thing is that the Floor Reps were always right. So far this year, the turnout at all the pubs have proven that they are a great success. Pubs are usually held on special occasions, such as Introweek, Panda and Hallowe'en. Some of the most enjoyed pubs of this year were -- Rumbleseat - A Tribute to John Cougar, The Forgotten Rebels, Rock n Hyde, FM and Nash the Slash, Chalk Circle, David Wilcox and The Beatles coverband -- 1964. All the residents that took this great advantage to seeing these bands for only five dollars or less were said to have had a great time. One specific male student will never forget Nash the Slash (way to go Yukon -- maybe that will teach you to keep your hands to yourself!). Special thanks go out to all those who helped with arranging and planning for all the pubs.

TWELFTH GLENGARRY

Congratulations! You found the page in the book that everybody searches for. Why? Well, were not quite sure. Could it be that we're so good looking? We like to think so, but we doubt it. So that leaves a few other theories. It can't be because we house those "handicapped" people, we kicked them out in October and replaced them with a bunch of just simply great guys. It can't be because we are simply sweeping men's intramurals, but we're trying.

Let's face it, we're HENRYS; we're logical, truthful, and really great, that's why we're willing to face the truth: It's because we've been cursed by Housing and are forced to live with Bruce Clark again!!!

What separates THE HENRYS from any other floor in Rez?

- Fritz the Cat for Res. Fellow
- Baseball and Canoe Champs of Frosh week
- Women are 3rd in intramurals
- Premature bellyflops
- The Great Inter-Floor Shagoff 87-88 (winners undeclared)
- Sports whips in casts
- Room-mate cross chucking
- Australians - who came from a land up over
- NOISE WARNINGS (thanks Fritz)

- Classic nicknames

- Guadela Harry's, Hurley's, and The Elephant Castle

- The devil lives in the basement of Glengarry

- Flooded suits

- Honorary Henrys

- Candle lit fire alarms

- Making waves in Fritz's waterbed (some stay the night)

- Spudz in a bikini

- Year long scrogarama in Bruce's room

- Secret Santa

- Pub crawls

- Chris and Sherry walk home from the market - one sock each

- Kim flooding the canal

- Never forget the smell of 205 and 120

- Big Guy
- Thynn's great 63 hour romance of a lifetime
- Timmy Treefrog
- Terry's Stairchucks
- A Frosh named Cheri, give us a break
- Kim picking fights with security guards
- The Resin picking us winners of the tunnel paintings
- Bee Gee and Bay City Roller parties
- Beach party in 120
- Vacuum room and Macho party
- Albert sleeping in the bathtub (repeatedly)
- Bruce's performance in the kiss-off
- Awesome Airbands
- Spudz's Century Club chuck record
- Free rides on Al's scooter
- Brent and Camille's food fight extravaganzas
- Peeping Toms
- The nerds, Pat and Ruth
- Bahama mamas
- The Cat Woman of 120
- The amazing possibility of a Henry getting a R.R.R.A job
- Andrea's firm breasts that feel so good

THIRD GLENGARRY

We were sick of seeing it!"

As Res. Fellow and Floor Rep., Camper and I were constantly showered with compliments on what polite and gentlemanly like qualities our floor displayed . . . burp . . . spit . . . fart . . . Asi was saying our floor had quite the reputation. In fact "Housing" was so astonished by our behaviour they put Camper on review and issued a 240 day warning to the "Gods" for the following reasons . . . Looking different due to boxcuts and flattops, acting unusual as a result of miscalculated lab experiments, missing classes due to our fetish with "Days", Gus having illegal sex under many "moons", Club 302, one of the hottest night spots in res. with Pete, Gary, late addition ACK and P.R. man Wayne, visitors were always assured of a good time, Club Jamaica with "Jimmi the Greek" and Gus Shultz and Al Dunn catering to the wasty habits of their clients, The "Campsite" which discriminated against anti celtic coalition, AJ and his new record for broken Saga glasses, Swirl's rude interior decorating, the Hoor's kidnapping of elevators and verbal harassment of their tenants, the excessive violence of our heavyweight champ "Killer Fry," and his number one contender Reid, Balt and Ange's bad table manners (Peaches) although the "Griz" was famous for his roar, he never shed his skin, Chuck and ACK's juggling act, Gary "think with your drink Laules", with the addition of Dean to the already reputable boys in 306 (Chuck and Rob) the nights got later and greater, Foster Brooks impressionists 1) Crazy M "rugburn" 2) Camper on his birthday 3) Swirl and McGuire on a weekly basis, "Super Dave's" too tired to wipe attitude, Keeler's sado masochism, Naps and his music library (thanx for the airband), Brad and his clepto binges, Cheech and his beckoning for Tequilla, Chad author of "How love keeps my roommate up", Walter and his "what are ya? stoned? impression, Sapman, I'm . . .!! and so is my floor.

Floor motto: "Chicks are for fags, let's order ZA."

P.S. The words of our father ACK "You vagrants!"

P.P.S. "Don't sleep on third it's a nightmare!"

P.P.P.S. "Thank God you gave her the damn ring Gord!

FOURTH GLENGARRY

Here's a story about (oh, I don't know!) 4th Glen and all it's wild and crazy girls. The year 1987-88 is a year that won't be easily forgotten especially for those mornings after the night before!! Which reminds us of Frosh Week -- Tracey did you really know your roommate? Belly-FLoppin' Babes -- right Erin? Volleyball champs, thanks to Marilyn! Then there were those birthdays in the Bree's -- hell, every night in the Bree's!!, Olivers, pub crawls and room parties hosted by Elaine. And if you cruised by the T.V. lounge you could always find soap junkies by day, Mira faithfully watching Knots Landing and Donna late at night. Making your way down the hall -- you never knew where you'd find anyone due to our many room changes, and new floor members -- Bev, Maureen, Trina, Theresa, not to mention Heather and Margaret! So Vinola, who's your next roomie? And Olga, where have you been all year? -- in the study lounge along with Andrea of going to Oliver's for alternative Thursday nights with Sarah and Sandy (That's sooo gross!). Of course we had members of the working class as well -- Laura, Tanya and Jen (Yo, Slip!) in the Fenn Lounge, Kelly C., Robyn, and Cathie (Leader of the Pack) and their attempts at finding a job!! And of course our service girls (service desk, that is) Brenda, Lisa and Cheryl. Let's not forget the pages of the 4th Glen review -- Rita, Vanessa, Shelley and Carla (how did you manage to find time for your many men?). Thanks to Kathleen and Janice who sold the most Panda shirts -- where do you guys get your energy? And to our accident prone people -- Carol and Deb -- party hearty like Tracey, one wild 'n' crazy girl! Not to mention: Julie K.'s partying in Saga! Sandra and Laurie's late night snack'n, Liz's pumpkin carving, Julie-Ann our future lawyer -- good luck!, Charlotte -- 'it's cheaper to take the train!', the elevator crew -- Nat, Joanna, Christa and Lisa (who by the way has decided she likes her weekends here better!!!) And Ellen who talks too much (ha, ha). As for Kelly K., you could always find (of at least hear -- Damnation!) her watching 60 Minutes, and Laura -- check 1st Lanark, Jessie -- putting the finishing touches on her hair (sorry, Jes!), Jen E. always in the S.A.C. (PS -- you did a great job), Isabelle -- ah, . . .! I don't know!, M.J. (That's not to be confused with Michael Jackson) -- shoot man . . ., Bonnie (Vern) nice sneakers! 'Hey kids' -- we love you, Anna, oh yes we do! . . . Good luck everyone -- you were a great floor!! --- your Floor Rep, Angie (alias Blue Rodeo Roadie).

REZ FELLOW, Anna Song and FLOOR REP, Angie McLean.

FIRST ROW (LT. TO RT.): Trina Couvelli, Lisa Sims, Isabelle Bourdeau, MaryJo MacKay, Anna Song.
 SECOND ROW: Cheryl Carson, Bonnie MacDonald, Kelly Kalese, Angela McLean, Liz Binks, Laura McNamara.
 THIRD ROW: Drahomira Filo, Kathleen Rorke, Janice Amour, Elaine Barry, Elaine Zanutto, Vinola Beggs, Bev Jackson.
 FOURTH ROW: Jen Burke, Julie Kinear, Sandy Ablett, Carla Doucet, Tracy Greason.

FIFTH GLENGARRY

As the immortal James Dean said, "What comes around, goes around." This has nothing to do with our floor but we like James Dean, "he's a dude." As we try to remember the events of the past year . . . Oh my God, we can't! But seriously kids, here they are:

- Stiltman winning 50 metre breast stroke across the canal, too bad it was a bellyflop contest.
- 6 A.M. wake up calls from Chris and Billy-Bob in full military gear as Rambo.
- former security guard wins water bed in kiss-off.
- Dwayne's nerd movie trips.
- 9 1/2 minutes live in T.V. lounge, thanks 1st Gren.
- October . . . A rude awakening . . . there really are classes!
- George: in love, not in love, in love, not in love.
- Rez security bastes Eug at Thanksgiving (What a turkey).
- "I'm leaving, it's Panda," says Russ.
- Food fight? Fire? Did they exist? Ask Jamie.
- Falling attendance at Lansdowne.
- On 5th Glen we don't cum cheap . . .
- Some of us don't even cum, eh Kirk?
- Housing awards for cleanliness to Chris ($800)
- Who can remember the floor dinner? Not the stag table, thanks 4th Renfrew.
- Dano "I've seen red", red "lies and slander."
- Quiet hours: Shhh . . . are you deaf Ben?
- Oh no, exams! I can't wait to get home.
- I didn't even get his number! Bridger meets the boards.
- A New Year, a new life!
- Marks, did anyone pass?
- It's a miracle, Pluto's sober!
- Rez Week.
- Stiltman - first a swimmer now a dancer.
- Air Bands - T.F.C.O. maybe next year.
- Animal House lives - marathon tunnel painting.
- R.F. cancels top five at 2, at 3, at 4, at 5 in 506. Take a coupon guys.

- R.F. goes crazy with coupons: 8 in one night.
 - Wanted: Res fellow for hire. Free room and board.
 - Russ is back! Where did he go?
- 5th Glen would like to thank all the people who made it possible for the enlightenment of young men. As Nixon would say, "Trust us . . . or at least try us!" Or as 5th Glen says, "Try Us!"

FLOOR REP, Chris Hazlett and REZ FELLOW, Russ McMann.

SIXTH GLENGARRY

Picture if you will, 65 degenerates from all over the country, brought together by the force known as FIDO. Only at such a meeting, one where men wear brown, women wear babushkas, and everybody is incoherent would you witness and overhear such atrocities as: chocolate bars, purple rice and purple Jesus, birthday shooters, floor meetings drunk (does everyone understand Kris Kringle?), century club, suite 601, John taking two days to get back from Hull, O.C. campus. Andy Warhol is god, Cecil's haircuts, fire alarms from 623, Grace, broken hand - no lost keys, complaints from 5th, no girls suite is safe from the O.C. gigolo, Brian and Jason's eternal flame, caffeine with Brian, nightmare on Sesame Street, Olivia's drug drive and opium den, Mary the ambulance, D&D, euchre, Spic, floor orders of Chinese food, disco parties, 14-day warnings for breathing too hard, tequila nights, Shhh . . . I'm a fourth year engineer, Santa from Hell bearing railway spikes, baby powder, missing light bulbs, toilet paper phantoms, hummy, rickets, play safe kids (go see the doctor), Demon spawn, I did not spew on Bronson, Linda the two drink maniac, Jag's, Zulu war dance, polkas, BOUCH, beer bottles broken (not smashed), park benches, puking in a cardboard box, was that a fire on Tom's door, not usually, Shazam, east/west football pools, Arman's appearance at Yuk-Yuks, "Ruthie, I got to get out of this place -- it's out of hand."

FLOOR REP, Kim Newton and REZ FELLOW, Eric Johnson (?).

SEVENTH GLENGARRY

Have you ever asked yourself what is a Seventh Glenner?! Well we have and only a select few ever make the grade . . . 67 to be exact. So what is Seventh Glen . . . It's . . . Pub Crawls, Skating to the Laf, Milt I & II, Woodstock, The Porch, Clogging a sink with puke, Stealing gas station price numbers to be used as a ranking system at the Fax., Pissing on the bouncer's car, The Junkyard, A great Hockey team, A lost tradition, A keg party . . . Or was it? The lost but not forgotten floor rep, Pal Hal, Faculty Firealarms in 702, #1 in Shinerama, #3 in tunnel painting, Blue Angels, Century club, Going to the hospital with Gastritis, Broken beer bottles on the porch, Blocking suite doors, Smashing plastic glasses on your face, Worshipping the Blue Jays, Disliking the Canadiens, Passing out in the foyer - "Oh, my room's in the study lounge", Living with a slam dunker, Where did #36 of the Ravens hair go?, Where's my China girl, Long distance to China (Eh Tim), Gerrrr!! Jim . . ., How's the plant doing; Botany 101 in 706 D, Is that Screamer's real hair? Is Sarah one of us? Shopping sprees at SAGA, Home of the future PLO leader, Betting with Bob, A porno music maker, The Grads, Where's the hair line? Is that a flute I hear or am I intoxicated?

 A GREAT BUNCH OF GUYS ***

EIGHTH GLENGARRY

Sitting down and trying to recapture 8 months of living in a few lines is tough.

The thing that is the most significant about life in REZ is that every floor has a flavour that is unique, it exists once and as people move on, no one will remember how it really was except for those who were there.

87/88 will never be forgotten by the BOOZEHOGS of 8th Glen. What was it about frosh week? The 6 am callisthenics with the frosh, the pubs, the mixers or our first real glory of pulling our way to a victory in the co-ed tug of war. Yeah, during the next six weeks we experienced the academic stuff, went home for real food and told the folks how hard we were studying and that the BRES INN was a great resource centre. Panda, what ablast. An event we can only hope to remember. Need we say more?

On to the classic floor dinner. Why was it that our floor rep had 2 dates, after 3 bottles of Kressman neither date saw 9:00 o'clock --- Mike, what a snake! Who were those senior partners shoving eclairs in our res fellow's face --- wait --- oh no it's our senior res, Cheryl and Peter, what are you doing??? We began the Yuletide season with Kris Kringles and the Xmas party. Pez, what is a pearle necklace? Ralph and Krash --- great Santa Shooter -- Will Labatts pay millions for this classic decoration?

In the new year, we came back to REZ WEEK. Jason's immortal portrayal of a Texas woman won him high acclaim in the REZIN. Tunnel paintings were quite an adventure. We must admit that the HOGS were a tad nervous until Diane --- a true northern girl --- saved the day! The proof is in the pictures. A picture is worth a thousand words but a feeling is worth a thousand pictures.

There are some things that we will never forget:

- Mike (floor rep) upside down, cleaning the tub with Saga lunch and Jack Daniels
 - Roozebeh and his wig
 - Suite 823 and the fart can
 - Archie Comic look alikes --- Betty and Veronica
 - The hall gang and the games they play
 - The insomnia club
 - Fashions by Honky Tonk
 - Pez Me
 - The 801 Yak List
 - Dominic the body slam avenger vs. Steve
 - Al's Century
 - Lisa's pipes
 - Janet Henderson here with Sports Trivia
 - The twin tower --- girls, girls, girls
 - Chez Ralph's
 - Krash and his pop bottle collection
 - Our Rez Fellow finally got over his fear of heights
 - Euchre, Euchre, Euchre
 - Dave, the rower and his Olympic moment
 - Shaving cream, vaseline, and the other slippery things
- As the years go by, there is a select minority that live and reign within the 8th Glen Pen.

BOOZEHOG'S FOREVER
THERE'S NOTHING AFTER EIGHTH!!!

NINTH GLENGARRY

Welcome to the crazy land of 9th Glengarry! What an interesting year it was. Things started out in a "hot" way. We had our own frosh week mixer on deathvator. Only 28 of us attended, but firemen, ambulance attendants and security soon joined in the fun. We won baseball with the Henrys (probably the first thing 9th ever won) and came second in Shioerama. We kept up our charitable image by winning the penny drive, and of course, the 15 large pizzas. Speaking of pizza, Willem used his credit card one to many times. We saw that doughball come spinning out in an unconscious stupor. Where's John? Lost in the pile? We had some great parties. Remember Hallowe'en? Anyone want some of Cathy and Martha's delicious punch? There's probably some still left. They should stick to beer-swilling and we'll stick to sling punches. The dry cleaners made money cleaning chocolate eclairs off our formal attire following the floor dinner. And how about Robin, our aerobic centurian! The Brees, Oliver's, the Laf and Hull: we supported them all. Then there was res week and the Fireman's Ball . . . Double D the doorman. Hey Marg, don't mess with him. As for tunnel paintings, hey, we came out. Liane and Dawne (with an E) taught the guys to dance. And the other Dawn (without an E) . . . where's Dale? Maybe we weren't the most athletic floor, but thanks to the 9th Glen hockey team: Jack, squash anyone? How many times did we get off the vator and see the most familiar sights and hear the most familiar sounds. There's Wabush, Chip, Henry, Tim, and Dave playing cards and listening to top 40. Or you could hear Simon's Grapes of Wrath, James' funk or John and Willem's Grateful Dead. Look, there's Wolfe busy typing. Homework? No, letters to the Charlaton. Anyone want to watch 9½ Weeks? Ask Glenn. Heather is heading to Cornwall for the weekend, anxious to hit City Limits. Val is wearing nice shoes . . . can I have a room change? I can't believe it! Lindsey is on the phone. Time to go to Saga. I wonder if Carrie is going to eat TWO pieces of cake. They came from all over to live on 9th Glen. Ehab, Nadia, Cathy, Teklewold and Yuh Ming . . . welcome aboard. They even came from Newfoundland. Sorry Lisa, Pat and Wabush . . . I refuse to kiss a codfish. Mike Lo Presti, too bad everyone can't live on 9th (but if you want to rent a room see Dinger or Weezy in 906). I have to go to an important floor meeting at the Laf now. I'll pick up Sal at St. Pat's on the way. He'd better not buy a filing cabinet . . . I don't want to take a bus back. Last, but not least, in the immortal words of Tabouly "Thanks for coming out. See you next year!"

TENTH GLENGARRY

THE QUESTION MOST COMMONLY ASKED BY EVERY FIRST YEAR RESIDENT OF TENTH: What did we do to get such a lousy reputation?

THE MOST COMMON ANSWER GIVEN: Because all the other girls floors are jealous of our outstanding beauty and character.

But let's be honest girls, the rumour could be started on any floor in residence.

Could it be that we have two consecutive Kiss Off Queens? Could it be our two res fellows, Kelly and ROB? OR, could it be that at least one member of every males' floor in residence has seen the lights go out on tenth. A few girls should receive credit for new innovative and adventurous "romp" locations:

the communal

the study lounge

the T.V. lounge

the closet

a snowbank

a strange house off campus

the Glengarry elevators

a yellow convertible

the top of the Arts Tower (just a floor fantasy)

BU THE FIRST PLACE AWARD GOES TO THE OBNOXIOUS FEMALE WHO CHOSE: THE HERZBERG WASHROOMS!

What a fun bunch of girls?!!

But with imaginative frosh like this how does this floor maintain the third year virgin legend? (. . . don't worry, she's leaving soon!)

So girls, the moral of this story is:

GET YOUR OWN BAD REPUTATION

ELEVENTH GLENGARRY

1987-88! The year the 'morgue' rocked . . . well, once or twice . . . well, almost . . . well, it would have if it wasn't for that famous grad stud. party cry: "I'd love to but I've just got too much work to do" echoing from the arcade, the Oasis, or the TV lounge. This was the floor where apathy reigned supreme except for the occasional post-mortem complaint which usually went something like: "Did we vote on this." Next time, attend the floor meetings kids. Some people labelled our floor the 'intellectual commune'. Well in all honesty this label only fits if intellectual is used as a synonym for elitism, snobishness, and ego-centrism, and the lack of floor spirit makes the label of commune a little far fetched to say the least! But overall, while the coffin-lady periodically emerged from the dead-suite, and the underground poets and poster-slashers prowled the hallways, there were some memorable moments. Our sports whip turned out to be a sports whimp, but we went ahead without him and The Penguins From Hell won their share of games and even won a few division championships. Standing ovations to everyone who came out for sports and other floor events (especially Miho, our sports MVP, Bruno, our born-again artsie, and Kim, our undergraduate defector). Although it was quiet most of the time, our resident robo-cop had to shut us down a few times but what we really needed was a few more undergrads up here Applause, applause to everyone who gave a damn about anyone else; HB, RI, DK, KT, BT, SWK, DD, KW, MH, and anyone else who belongs in this list that I've momentarily forgotten. LOTS of love to all of you in the future, and just remember that although most grads never got any (and probably never will), some of the people on 11th spent most of their time on top of 10th, (however very few ever found the staircase down). That's the way it was in the morgue this year where 'nothing was true and everything was permitted', it's just most grads (sic) never realized this because they were signed up for the wrong courses in life! Long live the Rebels and the Refugees. Keep smiling, our week beats their year. Beware the Underclass. The Lone Biker of the Apocalypse could be travelling down your next pathway, and then all those new clothes and extra University degrees won't help one bit. Burn bright like Roman candles!!!

Attendance: Poor Department: Misbehaved

1st TERM

Subject	Comments	Grade
---------	----------	-------

FROSH

WEEK:

Good participation in all events. Consumes alcohol very well. A definite love for water developed through the week (fountain tug of war, belly flop). Unfortunately, messy enters when hands tied behind back.

PANDA:

A good time had by all. Moments of intense intoxication. They handle upside-down shots quite well. Work needs to be done about being tidier with face prints.

B+

MIXERS:

Excellent at multi-person, co-ed twister. Desire to pick up chicks very healthy and, for the most part, normal. Good relations with 4th Glen. Work must be done on improving pick up lines.

PUBS/

BREE'S:

2nd Russell has well mastered the art of drinking. Attendance at the Bree's Inn Exemplary.

B+

ATHLETICS:

Unfortunately they are a little lazy. Achievements were made in baseball (tournament finalists), hockey (good intramural team). Excellent at indoor sports. Good imagination at inventing sporting events out of seemingly nothing.

B-

OTHER

COMMENTS:

A great effort is required on 2nd to have more fun than they have already had. Some good friends have been made on this floor and in the rest of residence. Residence is something everyone should experience. The reindeer have made 2nd Russell a great place to live. Best wishes to everyone in their future endeavors.

THIRD RUSSELL

The cast of characters which made up Third Russell in 1987-88 was unique indeed. The addage, "The more things change, the more they stay the same", held true in 87-88, mainly due to the efforts of Chris (Girl Guides turn my crank) Evans and Paul (Old enough to 'oui' old enough for me) Klop-penberg who proved once again that high school girls aren't that bad!! Good job men! Contributing to the degeneration of academics on the floor in 87-88 were; Andrew (Give me some cable and let me splice her) Phillips, Dave (I want to be a Cowboy) Wallace, Ed (The Eliminator) Smith, and finally, Stephen, (Take me to the civic) Pitel, who made his presence known in 1987-88, taking a few calls on the porcelain phone along the way! Dave (It's not my fault I'm a stud!) Martin spent 87-88, perfecting his juggling act, while the rest of us just watched and wondered! There were many Frosh that made 87-88 the success that it was on Third Russell: Archie (Gosh! she stank!) Hanley brought new meaning to the word "in-quisitive". Geoff (No-Pal-O-Nimmo-is-a-Pal-O-Mine) Davies and Geoff (Give me a Texas Micky and point me to Boston) Thomas, were often seen at adjacent study carols at the library working diligently while Mike (I want a relationship!) Kelly and his cohort, Gurdip (I've never met a quart I didn't like) Reihal could usually be spotted sluttng around Oliver's on Wednesday nights. Rich (Are you really a member of Glass Tiger?) Cowles, Rob (So what if I have to blow her up) Loxton and Rick (What the hell does YLI mean) Jurti, spent most of the second term filling in ballots for the "weekend with George Michael" contest, unfortunately they came up empty handed! Maybe next time guys! Third Russell was privileged to have three Engineers on the squad this year headed by Chris (I'm not Greg Brady) Hughes, Dan (Norman, the psycho killer) Soska and Tom (Orville Redenbacher) Williams. These three gentlemen were very serious about their studies, so much so that they were often caught with their hands on their T-square! On the subject of mispent youth, Mike (And it's lunchtime) Grainge dazzled anyone who would listen with his repertoire of voices, while John (The weekend warrior) Mills was off every weekend looking for a war to fight! While John was doing this, Torsten (All right I'll change my gitch this week) Lawson was looking for a can. Luckily, Scot (Is this really the Holiday Inn?) Stanfield had a toilet but Bill (The irregular guy) Gallaher was occupying it. Our mighty R.F. Neil (I'm coming back in ten minutes) Poutanen tried to get Bill off the throne when Steve (Grace under pressure) Ferguson and Andrew (Wrestling's not my life) Nicholls had a brainwave: get Brad (My girlfriend is coming up - anyone want a haircut?) Young to play some old April Wine, that would surely do the trick. Third Russell had its share of Maple Loaf fans, but none bigger than Willie (The king of software) Last and Horg (The footlocker guy) Waggot, to these gentlemen, we can only express our deepest sympathy!! We would be remiss if we didn't thank our sports whip Eugene (The human Megaphone) Minorsa who once again proved loud is better! And, finally . . .

 . tu Ungerrrr!!

FOURTH RUSSELL

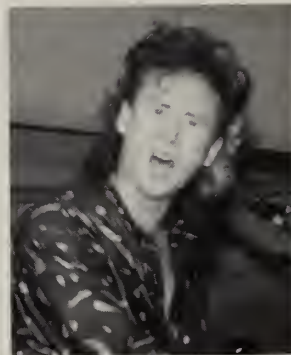

One day on 4th Russell shortly after a beer run, floor rep Dave Naylor incompetently had a case of beer stolen. "Hmm . . .", he said. "Might be the loaded gun theory. I'd better get Scoop Kelland on the case." Two days later Scoop returned with his report. "Here's what I've got," said Scoop. "It could have been Bib, he was searching for the other half of the cake. The Newf was at a different altitude than the beer so he didn't do it. Jeremiah was on the phone to Gina's all night. Sappo said that it was situationally revolting that such an unanticipated burglary took place. Clark was either at his sports meeting, seeing his hair consultant, or busy striking out. Dave Reesor's floor does not have any beer spilled on it so he doesn't have it. Donut claimed that he'd been doing homework all night. Fuji said that he'd been asleep. Serge said, what for you blame me, I watching Family. Tex Kenney was innocent since he'd been mourning the Bills shut out of the Dolphins, while Slide was away watching the Canadiens down the Bruins. Schirner said he'd been up all night and hadn't seen anything. Kelly had been on fourth Russell writing his life story, titled "Bitch, bitch, bitch". Wongsy was at the beach. Goerke and Fischer were busy stevenought. Scratch and Biro had been rug burn wrestling. Noonan had been on the phone to second Gren. Ted was in Be-hed, and Booger said he'd been cleaning his room all night. Irwin was away collecting cans. Nathan said accusing him was "Kinda shaky". The case wasn't Crystal so Blackie didn't take it. "There are 5 suspects that I've found with motives", said Scoop. Murray, since his car rental agency has gone broke. Luc, because he is an ex-con. Fenato, because he doesn't like to pay for anything. Dale because he is "BAD", and Craig Strong since he probably thought he deserved it for being athlete of the year." When suddenly in came Nigel, a smile on his face, giggling away; and a cold beer in hand. "He-he-he-he, guys", he said, "Thanks for that case of beer you guys left me, that was aaall right!!!"

GRENVILLE'S SENIOR RESIDENTS

SENIOR RESIDENTS, Al and Marilyn Gillich. CHILDREN (LT. TO RT.): Aaron, Bonnie, Lisa and Peter.

REZ FELLOWS AND SENIOR RESIDENTS (LT. TO RT.): Al Gillich, Chris Gerber (3rd), Stephanie White (2nd), Christine Sklandany (1st), Sandra Walneck (4th), Marilyn Gillich.

FIRST GRENVILLE

We the girls of First Grenville have a very unique floor with some of the greatest girls you will ever hope to meet. Each person is unique in their own way. Here let's take a look: Martina - whose always heard saying home, phone and delivery.

Judy - part-time resident who only lives here during the week to watch her soaps.

Martine - a girl who is famous for her hands, her shorts, Neil Young and the quest for big money.

Pam - who only goes to class when its convenient . . . eh, Lynne

Lynne - whose best nights sleep was in an elevator!

Marnie - whose fish almost became a Tim-bit or a bit of Tim!

Nancy - she has a strange entanglement with a Pog Person!

Susan Mc. - F.L. is able to do the 100 yard dash faster than anyone else in heels!

Loren - have you ever seen Loren's pet cat?

Carreen - her favourite words are "but I don't even know you,"

Angie - claims that the monster in the closet possesses her roommate from time to time.

Heather - I've just seen the most incredibly amazing looking . . .

Sharon - Olivers! The ultimate obsession!

Christine S. - She's a girl of confusion; is she the Res Fellow or the Floor Rep? Does she live here or in a Lodge member's bathroom on second Lanark? One thing to remember is she is always is always is ready for a good "Laff"!

Meghan - this year Sock 'n Buskin - Tomorrow the Oscars!

Natalie - Our best kept secret on the sports scene!

Susan M. - She has moved to First Russell

Rhonda - She only shed's her chicken feathers after visiting "Roosters", Amanda - Chris, pizza, Chris, pizza, Chris, pizza . . .

Connie - She has tested every brand of shampoo once and never wants to throw them away . . .

Beth - A few words come to mind - salad; champagne; incense; BBC; Hershey's Kisses; marshmallows; candles and a high sense of "fashion".

Sheri - Owner and operator of "Brandy's Tea Room" and hall monitor!

Chris W. - Has a few ambitions - to lustfully attack Brian Orser; to write a script for "Days"; and contend her title as "Electric Chair Killer"!

Susan S. - Thoroughly believes that patience is a virtue especially when dealing with Saga!

Joanne W. - Perma grin and peachy keen are Jo's way of life.

Cindy - Some descriptive words - Bree's Baby; Swamp dweller; Canadian message in the bottle; men's washroom; mouldy shoes; wants your socks; and loves cream cheese!

Erin - Some more descriptive words - Bree's Baby; Swamp dweller; Ritz Crackers; Molson Light; "Quack" and then on the flipside "Whitesnake".

Joanne - Another Bree's Baby who loves Canadian wine and smoked oysters. Her most loved position is zzz . . . eh Esther?

Cheryl - Our Floor-Rep was Carleton's choice for Student Abuse but she maintained her position as President of Tony the Tiger's Fan Club 'cuz he's Greeceat!

FLOOR REP, Cheryl Taylor and REZ
FELLOW, Christine Skladany.

THIRD GRENVILLE

A winning floor was obvious from the start. Frosh week proved it - from Andrea's sexy bellyflop to the mastery of the tug-of-war - sorry tenth!! And the barrel race of course - victorious right to the end. Wake up Frosh!! Throughout the year, there were many memorable experiences. Lest we forget all the broken bones and crutches galore - it didn't break our spirit. Right Party Frosh? Who will ever forget (or remember) our amazing New Years Eve Party, and all those awesome mixers? Right Power Puker! With the help of our great sports whip "scoop", volleyball was one of many mastered intramural sports. Well we all lived through the aches and pains of rez - not to mention academics! Rez week came with a bang and third Gren was more than prepared . . . Third Gren dominates the Rez Formal - what an awesome party!! How can we forget tunnel painting '88 with Third Gren - "PERFECTION" at its best! And how about when George "M.J." Micheal and "Church Lady" Cheryl collaborated for Airband - Isn't that special! And lastly our classy floor dinner with Third Russell and Second Lanark - Partying with the best!! Thanks guys! But most special thanks goes to our super brother floor - incest is best! Seventh Glen sports Gods - thanks for coming! To Cheisi the best F.R.F. in the world and Marlene the "Porns Queen" Floor rep - without them nothing would have been possible!! Cheers to the Third Gren Goddesses!!!

Thanks for the good time Skippy!!

We will leave you with some lasting words:

Let's do the Bree's!

Jump him!

What a babe!

Let's go . . .!

It's Y&R time!

Ungerrrr!!

The four bitchen bitches!

Late night with Sue and Vic!

So what are you trying to say?

Classic!

I can't remember scoop!!

I want a divorce!

What a bitch!

Make him sweat!

Sarcastic Bitches!

The girls from 4th Gren have had a blast this year and here is just a few of the memories:

Moe and Earl exchanging pleasantries

"I can smell hair grow"

"Could ya be a bigger loser?"

Superfrosh

"Hi! I'm Fever"

Shalom

"Hi! I'm Charlie from Arlington, Texas"

Shirley and Bob Watt's line

Janet from another planet

"I won't be able to sleep unless I talk to J.D. tonight!"

Just kidding, right Marnie!

Jo and Sue opening and closing the Brees!!!

Moe the Slash (F.M. much)!!

F.U. final infinity squared cubed, right Juber?!

Janine, have you finished your essay yet?

Kim H. are you still up?

Lorna, phone . . . again!

K and C . . . you couldn't get a 14-day if you tried!

Nice voice Annie, have another drink!!

Nothing like a good book in bed, eh Earl?!

Get carried down the halls much Lizard??!

I'd like you to meet Karen

The walking T.V. / Soap Opera Guide!

The loyal order of Yakkers!!!

Andrea; born a generation too late!

The invisible women.

Michelle and Nicola, this is your last warning!

Maria, the pseudo - Henry!

Nice tan, Heather!

French Anne and Architecture Julie

Our own Madonna

Marcy, was that you yelling last night?!?

Where's Kelly's third roommate?!

And with the rest of the best, Pattie, Paulette, Monica,

Michelle, Nancy, Judy, Tory, Christa, Elaine and Areta,

Natlle, Sandra, Nadine . . . we've had a great year, and may the memories live on forever . . .

LANARK'S SENIOR RESIDENTS

SENIOR RESIDENTS, Shone McDiarmid and Chet Mitchell.

REZ FELLOWS AND SENIOR RESIDENTS (LT. TO RT.): Eugene Lundrigan (2nd), Tom D'Ippolito (4th), Chet Mitchell and Shone McDiarmid, Kathy Humphrey (1st), Helen De Roia (3rd).

FIRST LANARK

29½ WEEKS ON FIRST LANARK, featuring: Kathy Humphrey (R.F.): Hot Lips. FRANKly, Kathy worked hard this year and deserved a Pat on her back. Anthony Ferrari (F.R.): Mickey Rourke. Anthony had a FINE time as a Lodge member this year, but 'Mickey' still needs to find some willing female to do the food scene with him. Tim Aucoin: K.D. Lang. Tim will not be attending Panda next year, due to falling attendance.

Trevor Bhupsingh: Mr. Nice Guy. Trevor made many new friends this year -- Hal, Dave Sterritt, Popeye. Annette . . . Elkin Seto: Love Puppy. "Hey everyone! I'd like to introduce you to my parents. Smile for the camera!" Steve Edgeley: Woody Boyd. Steve spends most of his time in his Priti room.

Gerry Lemmermeyer: Elvis. "Gerry, I really need some solid advice about . . ."

Chris Leavens: Human Bigfoot. Chris doesn't like to eat Saga food, he inhales it. T & E for T & A.

John Gillespie: Scab. "Hey Pepsi, can I borrow your car? I'll only be a minute, promise!"

David Savoie: Pepsi. He enjoys spending his nights on park benches in Hull.

Jill Hobson: Hey Babel. PANDA '87 -- "Hey, Jill, how's the wine skin?" "Yuk -- it's piss warm."

Lisa Degiorgio: Zoe 'the cat' Pinsky. "What are you talking about? Leslie's are bigger than mine."

Leslie Goldthorpe: Jewish bitch. Les completes the room full o'. She enjoys laughing at nothing, 1st Ren men, playing with Gummi bears, and blue hooking.

Sally Brunton: Wrinkle. Salamander our 94 pound man-magnet.

Andra Forrest: Lust-Muffin/Sex-Kitten. Andra likes to drink till she falls down (again, and again, and again). She also likes boxers and dimples (luckily Hans qualifies).

Paul Duchart: Scarface. At a party, Paul always SUPPLIES the laughs.

Eugenio Martinuzzo: Hugel. The Italian Stallion can't wait to finish class, so that he can return to his Chamber.

Erin Pollock: biological engineering. The kettle wasn't the only thing hot in her room the night of the floor dinner.

Mike Mainville: Spuds (party animal). Mikey-boy couldn't get up on his birthday.

Jan Groen In't Woud: Heesh. The Ice (Slush) Man needs to cool down on the HOUSE music!

Rodney Ferguson: Gummi Bear. "I want some PU__Y!"

One of our Ridley boys.

David Finn: Finner. "Hey, Dave -- when's your sister coming up?" Our other Ridley boy had lots of fun with 'da sex machine'.

Diane Rodgers: Lady Di. "Don't you have to tape the vitamins in?" The floor was apPAULled by Diane's behaviour at the beginning of the year -- how can she end it? Lynn Gardham: Goldilocks. She missed Frosh Week, but we love her anyways (even though she does have naturally straight hair). But what does she do with the plasticine?

Helene Cullen: Big H. Helene and Geoff are Residence's perfect couple -- they even make Anthony want to settle down (HA!)

Julie Chambers: Jewels. Julie has to be commended for her strong-arm man-handling tactics. (eh, Eug?)

Sandra Wolfe: Sandra Siskel. "I'll give that movie 3 and a half stars." "I just want a fling!!"

Jodie McCulloch: Flirt. Two coolers and a fuzzy navel -- "I didn't want to get drunk, but you know, I think I did!"

We would like to thank our supporting cast for making the year the success it has been -- Richard ('Mr. Wall Street'), James Monica, Stace, Allison, Greg, Dave, Andron, Steve, Peder, Stuart and Glen and Chris, Shawn, and Tim. And now, remember: LADIES AND GENTLEMEN! ELVIS HAS LEFT THE STADIUM! I REPEAT: ELVIS HAS LEFT THE STADIUM!! Peace, everybody and have fun!

REZ FELLOW, Kathy Humphrey and FLOOR REP, Anthony Ferrari.

SECOND LANARK

"A vast radiant beach, in a cool jewelled moon. Couples naked, down by it's quiet side. And we laughed like soft, mad children." We the children of the dark side of the quad began our epic journey through booze and hallogens in early September. Under the direction of our Sainly Rez Fellow, Eugene Lundrigan and his opposite the demonic Floor Rep, Pat Czyz we followed a somewhat twisted path.

Lest we not forget:

- the blur that was frosh week (great waiters and waitresses in Saga).
- the Alex La Bamba belly flops.
- Pulsing birthdays in the Brees (right Sue and Karen)
- Pink Floyd took Ottawa and it's disciples on the dark side of the quad to another dimension.
- Messed up, drunken pubs.
- Mushrooms, knives and homegrown.
- Off campus parties (Mark's black eye).
- Laura's vicious destruction of Alf.
- Pat saves the Floor and almost gets kicked out.
- Eugene pukes in a whopper way.
- The passing up of Devon at Panda
- The sleazes at Pimp and Prostitute.
- Beating 4th Lanark at Boat racing (Halloween), Devon new anchor.
- Practical jokes; bed stealing, phone gluing, and shaving cream everywhere (right Karl).
- Santa had a draft ball, not to mention a joint.
- Seances with Anne Frank and Grace Kelly.
- A sleazy Floor dinner.
- A high time at Airband (One pill makes you small, one pill makes you tall)

We love you all,
2nd Lanark

P.S. "Freedom just another word for nothing to lose."

THIRD LANARK

Dear Diary,
I'm just sitting here after a night at the Bree's listening to everyone roll in from different places. I have just decided that most of the people who live here really are wierd! What other floor would have a Disco Party and the only tunnel painting that made no sense at all! We must thank Kevin "Disco" Brown for correcting the Resin and ensuring that disco lives on Third Lanark and of course Annaliese for a tunnel painting that no one knows what the . . . it is about. Those late night phone book ripping parties by Jim and John were pretty strange also. Of course we can't forget the time Bob tried to kill people with a 2 by 4 or how he had to get a tetanus shot! Forget your Key? Can't get in through the security door? Don't worry about it, just call Eugene and he'll kick it in for you. But what do you expect from a floor with a Rez Fellow who has every appliance in her room. I think the only thing she knows how to say is "Shh, it's quiet hours!". Then there is little curly-headed Paul our Floor Rep. His Mom, Kelly lives on the floor too. Isn't that cute? Then we have our 3rd Lanark Lovebirds who met at Froshweek and haven't parted since. Let's hope we get invitations. We even have a room with six people living there - right Danielle, Nancy and Kathy? as if we don't have enough crazies on the floor we got a transfer from the Henry's. Do you know what I found written on Helen C's door when I went to visit her?
Go away! My name is Helen Campbell and I'm not very friendly. I am stubborn and if I don't agree with you . . . too bad. I enjoy causing trouble on the floor. My favourite targets are Phil, Paul and Helen. I don't like being pushed around by guys. As a matter of fact I can only think of one use for them. My career goal is to have a Nova Scotian rebellion and take over North America. Crack a few jokes, put people down and they think you're a bitch. Why is that???

We also have some people here called Matt, Lori and Chantal. We don't really know who they are but they tell their parents they live here and are really nice when they stop by to pick up their mail. We even have a floor spokesman Steve Barry, he talks ALL the time, too bad he never says anything! I hear lots of noise coming from down the hall, must be those "studs" of Playboy Corner, Scoob, Henrick, Floppy and Zoo having another bathroom party. Speaking of parties, no need for Tina, Emelia, or Andrea to go to the gym, all their slumber parties keep off Saga Butt. Across the hall we have the Party Queens of 324 or 326. They can always find a reason to party (or to drink!). Then there is Carol, the only girl who can sleep through someone using power tools to rip off our convertor. Karen is still keeping up her old throne as Queen of the Couch Potatoes. By the way Dave how are your phone bills! Dusty, does Blue smile along with you? Of course we can't forget Phil, following his duties as RRRRA President went above and beyond the call of duty, ensuring that every female frosh got an intimate knowledge of the workings of RRRRA. Third Lanark got a few Xmas presents this year, Dave, Beverly, Heather (another Henry Escapee) and Elton (our big bad wolf), lucky they are all strange and fit right in. Chip and Norm have just come in from another hard night of chasing skirts. An unsuccessful run as usual. There are quite a few other wierdos but I just don't remember their names -- I don't think they do either . . .

What a time we had,
Helen & Paul.

FOURTH LANARK

The sun shone brightly on that late August day as the Crown Prince of the Rideau River rode into Lanark Castle. He had come to accept his tutelage from the King of the Realm, who despite his long years still displayed the vigor and vitality of youth.

The Prince and Sir Douglas the Tardy, Earl of Tama, climbed the four flights to the top of the keep. There they found the King in the throne room. Much awaited greetings were exchanged and ales were consumed in revelry. In the days that followed, members of the court began to arrive from the far corners of the land. These included Sir Conall the Black, Sir Jeffery the Earl of Vanity and his female entourage, Lady Kristen the Pure, Sir Brett the Superfrosh, who em-bare-assed the Court at public functions and the once Sir John Marcil, who was stripped of his title after insulting the Prince and redubbed Cocky Frosh the Knave. And others were soon to follow such as Sir John of Yukon, whose love for various elixirs was second to none, Mademoiselle Sophie from the Belle Province, Sir Jim the Fabler, the fair Lady Lise from the windswept shores of Denmark and Sir Columb who "lived" off the land.

The last summer rays lit up the Castle of Lanark as the Royal Court visited the summer estate of Gatineau for a picnic with the Duchy of Renfrew.

October was soon upon them and many preparations were made for the Annual Festival of Panda. However, a dark cloud loomed over the merriment for the King had been gravely wounded, along with the young Lady Allison, when their carriage was forced off the road. Tributes and favours poured in from the five Duchies of the Realm while the Prince took charge of the affairs of the Kingdom. These included preparing the "Royal Jello" dispersing the ale and punch and leading the annual procession to Landsdowne Park.

All Hallows Eve came and went uneventfully except for the Prince's drunken antics, with some of the Realm. It was also about this time that three maidens of the Court, Mary, Julie and Mary, suspected of experimenting with substances that had been banned from the Kingdom, formed the Powers Coven.

REZ FELLOW, Tom D'Ippolito and FLOOR REP, Mark Farrell.

tense days of searching, stealing, and borrowing, Lady Kristen's troupe emerged victorious.

Other nobility that provided invaluable services to the Kingdom included Sir Steve of Chenier, the Royal Photographer, and Lady Cathy Sir Dave and Sir Robert of the Royal Carriage Service. Among other notables were Lady Leanne of Zorn and the Baron Brocklehurst, whose expected betrothal was greatly anticipated by the Court, and who could forget Sir John, the 1st Earl of J.C. (Just Casual).

The year's end draws nigh and the drawbridge is raised. Let not these Regal Walls forget all the notable Lords and Ladies, the Court may be gone but not forgotten.

A Royal Banquet was held in November, with the Royal fiefs of 1st Grenville, 1st Lanark and 1st Renfrew in attendance. It raised the Court's spirits so much that a second one was planned for the New Year.

The Court reconvened for the New Year and the Annual Festival of the Res Week began. A finely handcrafted mural of "A Riverboat Fantasy" represented the Court in the tunnel painting competition. The Royal Airband was a favourite throughout the land with even Sir Bundy, Captain of the Frosh, taking an active role. Sir Robert (R.C.S.), the Prince, and even the King himself personally braved the cold long nights in preparation. It was a performance befitting of Royalty and the entire Court received much praise.

It was during this time that the Great, 1st Annual, 4th Lanark Scavenger Hunt was held. After three in-

RENFREW'S SENIOR RESIDENTS

SENIOR RESIDENTS, Margaret and John Shepherd.

REZ FELLOWS AND SENIOR RESIDENTS (LT. TO RT.): Allyson Hagerman (3rd), John Shepherd, Leanne McLaughlin (4th), Pete Cocurollo (1st), Margaret Shepherd, Derek White (2nd).

FIRST RENFREW

"Never a dull moment" best describes 1st Renfrew's year aboard the Pacific Dolphin. The inferno of room 109 and the theft-plagued 101 made this half floor an insurance company's nightmare. Molson's made a killing, and Hoyle became a household name amongst the poker patrons of 1st. Squash took on a whole new meaning as our racket men took the Dolphins to the playoffs in intramural squash. Without question the air-band antics of Elvis gave everybody at the bottom of Renfrew a reason to cheer, as they were finalists in the contest once again.

Godfather of 1st Ren, Pete C., kept the floor on track even when he wasn't. Although his rowing prowess was not questioned, Kook never once demonstrated his pulling technique on his expensive erg. By the way Pete, do you still have that penpal in England? Little Dougy's year started off with a flop in the canal. After that, Dougy gave up engineering in favour of expanding his disc collection. Hubert, affectionately known as "Quebec's Jimi Hendrix" proved that frogs can be musicians too. Darren P. the man with a fetish for Wanda women, should've heeded Mike's warning about 4th Ren sinners. The disappearing Dolphin, Ralph S., was rumoured to have happy feet for women head and shoulders above the rest. Art Thrasher once more graced us with nightly Howard Cosell imitations, but had trouble remembering names, right Horatio? Floor Dinosaur goes to Greg the Moine, who was able to finance his 4th Ren affair with a steady stream of essays. Steve L., alias Britt, was the most sincere member of 1st Ren, explaining why everyone called Balderdash whenever he opened his mouth. Britt S., a.k.a. Steve, enjoyed sporting his baby blue jumpsuit on occasion, and won the Pint-size Cat Magnet Award. By the way, Johnny Lanark, yes you are as good looking as you think you are, but next time don't let her use my baby oil, or else. The Mafia planted Gino within the Dolphin ranks for two years before he was discovered. His mastery of cement mixing and shoe making gave it away. Our token Yankee, Brent W., finished his two year stint aboard still believing Phoon to be a 2nd cousin to Ronald "My Bum Hurts" Reagan. Bringing us to Tim "Phoon" Chirp - its who has kept us updated on the price of perogies in Windsor, and all the best Polish w(h)ines. Our master strategist, Colin, has been found either screwing around on 10th Glen or his Apple (no preference indicated). Known as the Don Juan of Newfeland, Craig has kept us entertained with frequent tales about "the one that got away" . . . and I don't mean fish.

Speaking of fish, our floor sushi specialist, Kevin L., became the only engineer ever known to put Coors before Calculus. Oh, and James, The Smiths breakup isn't really the end of the world, but if the destruction of squash racquets helps, go ahead. Pookie Bear, a.k.a. Steve R., is rumoured to be starting a career as a chimney sweep on account of his affinity for hot spots. Like a bad smell, Bud just wouldn't go away. Perseverance paid off when he finally gained a place with the fabled Dolphins. And yes Mike M., you are as cool as you think you are. Good luck in your future as a trend setter . . . will bell-bottoms ever come back? Pete S., fondly known as "Popeye", found to his dismay that money can't buy you love. Did she give you a Student Saver Discount? Mighty Danny N. will make it either as Renée Levesque's successor, or a midget wrestler, depending upon where his debating (read "arguing") skills land him. Last, but not least, our beloved floor rep, Jules Foreskin, otherwise known as Dave E. In his role as a human owl, Dave preferred to spend his nights roaming residence, catching winks during daylight hours. He has also become Dr. Ruth Westheimer of 1st Ren, giving 4th Glen and 1st Glen priority on his list of house calls, just going to show what a giving person Dave is.

Thus ends the saga of 1st Renfrew, "the men with a port-poise", for another year.

FLOOR REP, Dave Erskine and REZ FELLOW, Peter Cocurullo.

Bill D. - Like hey Scoob, dig those goofy ghost costumes.

Rick (BIG RED) - The one man electrical band . . . MAMMA!

Kenny - No time, got to work.

Brian - Make it Mac tonight at Smoothy's.

K.C. (RAMBO) - No one gets my cherry til I'm damn good 'n' ready.

Joe (BORDER PATROL) - Hey dude, I'll show him the ropes.

Scott (HOSS) - Hey everybody, it's pork fest at SAGA.

Rob (CORY) - I hate pork fests.

Robin - The space cadet sailing in the psychedelic cosmos of life.

David Bowie - Sorry, I lost count after 28.

Glenn - I'm working on my lower body tonight.

Mike (SAGA) - Hoss, stay away from the pork.

Tracy McIver - Show me another sleeping position.

Mark B. - Shalom, I'm in love - it's the real thing this time.

Luc - Nothin' like partying south of the treeline.

Frank (YAYYAYA) - Yes this is my real hair.

Keir (HOLLYWOOD) - Do you have anything I could possibly use F---?

Wayne (NEUF) - Where ya to, bye?

Grant - I guess I'll just have to build a woman.

Terry - What's in the gym bag, Radio Shack man?

Alec (FLOOR REP) - Where's the floor fund? I am not a thief!

Derek (RES FELLOW) - Fellas, this is your last warning, honest!!!

Lalo (LATIN LOVER) - 11:30 Debbie, 11:45 Beth, 12:00

Jack . . .

Pete (BOOTS) - Who's the boss? She is.

Otamere (DOUBLE O) - Get him for grand theft T.V.

Sean O'C. - Seany Dangerously, A lightbulb a day keeps the doctor away.

Dave G. (DYLAN) - How do you fly the friendly skies?

Vince - What a mallacca.

Darryl - Is my Polo wearing off?

Shawn G. - It's all fun and games till someone loses an eye!

Dave F. - Where's your floor dinner date?

Andrew - Hmmm, good tunes buddy.

Pete - the all natural man

Dave (HMD) - Crank it up, it's gotta be loud for slavefest.

Ken - Watch your step, hey who moved the toilet?

Alan Mc. - My name is AL, AL - two letters!

Cam - Get your hands off my label!

Irwin - Hey red eye, have a muffin.

Bruce - The phone is for you.

Mark - I quit buying smokes.

Brian - Wake me when the 60's are over, man.

Tom - Can someone get this pickle?

John - Can I bum a smoke, Scott?

John L. - Life: TSN and a couch.

John T. - (ZIPPY) - Caffeine might help.

As I sit here writing this message I so dreaded writing it finally dawned on me the real reasons for my apprehension. I cannot realistically envision being able to condense all my thoughts and feelings about my four years here in Residence into one page in a meaningful way.

Without a doubt the four years spent here at Carleton Residence have been the best of my life and the thought of leaving for good seems almost incomprehensible.

Thinking back about all the people I have met here and come to know, it seems that there are a few common traits that they all share. The spirit and the drive that seems to almost possess the people that come here and get involved, is really the backbone of this community. It's this spirit that makes your experience here as rewarding and beneficial as your academic studies. The names and the faces change but the spirit always remains the same. Let's be sure that it stays.

I would like to thank all the working members of RRRA 1987-88 for their sometimes endless energy in helping us get through the year, especially during Orientation week, Panda week (Don't let it happen again) and Rez week.

An even bigger thanks goes to all the members of this years residence council who's contribution to the year was immeasurable at the very least, and which was given on a volunteer basis on top of it. Which again reflects the spirit of res.

Lastly I would like to thank the rest of the executive for their tireless efforts (and for putting up with me) and the entire Residence community (including the Sr. Residents) whose participation made this year as good as it could be.

With that aside, I wish all the best to Derek and Bernie for 1988-89 and to everyone . . . good luck with all your future endeavours (thanks Steve). I'll just leave you with a quick thought on life from someone who knows far more about it than I do.

"A fatal adventure. It can have only one end. So why not make it as far ranging and free as possible?"

Phil Afanasiev
RRRA President 87-88

In September of 1985 an eager, somewhat naive, 18 year old left his comfortable little niche in the Cactus Capital of Canada and headed off to the great unknown in another Capital. Though leaving friends and family behind in Dundas seemed traumatic at the time, the experience was transformed into an enjoyable one the day I moved into residence.

Above all, residence has given me the opportunity to make many friendships, some of which will last a lifetime. Through the happy times and hardships of University life, I've learned more in the last three years than I would have ever thought possible when leaving high school. It has been hard work keeping school from interfering with education, but I think I have succeeded.

I'd like to send out "thank you's" to Bernie and Karl for . . . well, they know what. Thanks to Council, Jen, Andy, Kathy and especially Phil for having me.

With that I'll leave you with some words to live by:

For me there is only the travelling on paths that have heart, on any path that may have heart. There I travel, and the only worthwhile challenge is to traverse its full length. And there I travel looking, looking, breathlessly.

- Don Juan -

See you in the shade.

“Rez Week? It’s just like Frosh Week, but BETTER!” The theme for this year’s Rez Week was “Start Me Up” and it certainly did. The week was kicked off with the 4th Annual Firemans Ball in the Triple Lounge. Saturday night hosted the Rez Formal at which everyone had their chance to glitter and dance at the Holiday Inn. The Third Annual Molson Rinne Cup Road Hockey Tournament took place on Sunday. Tuesday night brought the chance for all the floors to show off their artistic talents through tunnel paintings. Congratulations go out to Third Grenville, Second Grenville and Seventh Grengarry who placed 1st, 2nd and 3rd respectively. The following evening displayed even more talent. Everyone enjoyed the Fifth Annual Airband contest. Fourth Russell won the show with their impersonation of Michael Jackson dancing to Band and Beat It. Second and Third place went to Fourth Lanark and First Renfrew. By the way, watch for falling Roks, eh Pud.!!! The next three nights saw pubs, pubs and more pubs. Thursday in the Bree’s Cooper, Emerson and King -- Friday, Joshua played in the Fenn Lounge and Saturday night was blue Rodeo (which ‘rounded up’ Rez Week!). Hopefully everyone found Rez Week an excellent welcome back to Rez!

RRRA ELECTIONS

Candidates for RRRA President, 1988-89: Mike Lo Presti, Derek White and Neil Poutanen. Vice-Presidents running along with them were: Paul Moreau, Bernie Etzinger and Pat Czyz.

DEREK AND BERNIE: RRRA 88/89

DEDICATED LEADERSHIP

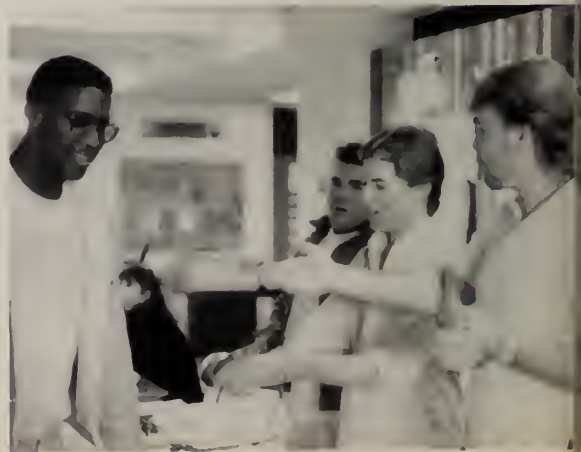

- both are Residence Fellows this year.
- Derek has experience in The Bree's Inn, The Fenn Lounge and the Liquor Operations.
- Bernie was the Abstentions Summer Manager in 1987 and also a Floor Rep in 1986-1987.

IDEAS:

- at the beginning of the school year, an executive member would attend floor meetings of each floor making the people representing you much more approachable.
- having an Info line in the RRRA office (564-RRRA) -- aimed at informing you of upcoming events.
- continue to lobby for more study space in residence.

IN CLOSING . . .

As the Editor of this Yearbook, I would like to take this time to thank the millions of people who helped me out. If you were one of the lucky ones and involved in the book, then you probably noticed how bitchy and aggravated I can really get. Fortunately, all of you stuck by me and accomplished the almost impossible: FINISHING THE YEARBOOK!!! THANKS GUYS:

- Steve Chenier, Photo Editor and his assistant, Paul Timmons, for helping me out being there when I needed someone to freak out on.
 - Julie Kaufman and Mary Cork, Co-Editors, for putting up with me and not kicking me out of the Powers even when I was a party-pooper.
 - Thanks to all those late night typists - especially Mark Farrell, Tom D'Ippolito, Cathy Duff, Steve Rafuse, Tim Cierpiz, Steve Chenier, Mary Cork and Julie Kaufman -- without all of you, I would have been even more insane.
 - Thanks to all those people who submitted their own photos for the book. There are so many that I can't name you all but most of all thanks to my Rez Fellow, Tommy D' for all those excellent last minute shots!
 - Thanks to Jeff Ayotte, Advertisement Manager, I guess one out of five pages isn't too bad, hon.
 - Thanks to Sean, Phil and Kathy for putting up with me and all their help.
 - Special thanks to Mark Farrell for talking me into this job and helping me get it started.
 - Thanks to all the Floor Reps and the Rez Fellows for helping me with the group shots and the write-ups.
 - And especially thanks to Dennis Brown, my Jostens Rep. for all those last minute questions, decisions and ideas.
- If I have forgotten anyone - THANK YOU - without the help of all of you this book would never have been finished and would probably still be lying in my dead lounge. Any errors that you may have come across have been printed on purpose in order to get your attention!

Thank you and don't forget all the good times in 1987-88!!

Mary Saunders,
Editor.

I would like to use up this blank space to say hello to all of the people that I have met since the beginning of this undertaking. The people that showed up for all the pictures are the ones that made it possible for me to do my job and I would like to thank you for it. I know that many of you did not make it to your pictures, but your floor speaks for you in spirit. The Floor Reps and the Rez Fellows made the picture taking that much more enjoyable not to mention easier. Without the help from them the pictures would not have turned out the same. I would especially like to thank Tommy D'Ippolito for his helpful suggestions and also Grant Leung for some of the last minute shots.

It goes without saying that a lot of work has gone into the making of this Yearbook by the staff, the photographers and the helpful ideas by countless number of people. These people outside the Yearbook staff give this year's Yearbook the added value that I hope you all will enjoy.

Thank You,

Steve Chenier,
Photo Editor.
